Toronto Golf Players Here.

The Toronto Golf Club members arrived in this city last night and are quartered at the Livingston. This afternoon they will play a team from the Country Club of Rochester on the local links.

WON BY SIX UP.

The Toronto Golf Team Beaten at the Country Club.

The Thistle golf club team defeated the Toronto golf club team yesterday afternoon on the links at the Country Club. There was a good attendance, fine weather and the greenskeeper had the links in fine condition. The Rochesters put up an even game, rather excelling their usual form. The score:

TOPICS FROM THE FIELD OF SPORTS

Rochester Golfers Were Defeated on the Toronto Links.

WELL ENTERTAINED

They Returned Last Night Very Enthusiastic Over Their Trip—Field Day Sports at Genesee Wesleyan Seminary.

THE members of the Thistle Golf Club, of this city, who went to Toronto to contest Saturday with the crack golfers of that place, returned last evening much pleased with their trip. Although defeated they had the satisfaction of knowing that they did good work on the Toronto links, which they report to be some of the finest they ever played on. The local golfers were royally entertained by their Canadian antagonists, who showed their hospitality in every way possible.

The Rochester golfers were beaten, it is true, but they put up a strong fight, as the closeness of the subjoined score will show. Taking into consideration the fact that the links were strange to the Rochester golfers, their work was exceedingly creditable. The Toronto links are very finely laid out and it is considered a pleasure to put the ball on that course. Hudson and DuPuy carried off the honors for the Thistle Club, defeating their opponents by good margins. The scores follow:

Rochester.		Toronto.
G. T. Curtis	0	Blake	2
Louder	0	Worham	2
Hudson	5	Law	0
Carpenter	0	Mastone	4
Bowman	0	Edgar	2
DePuy	4	Gamble	0
W. J. Curtis	0	Scott	4
Total	9	Total	14

It will be seen that the Toronto golfers won by a total score of 5 up. The scoring was under the rules governing match play. This was the second of a series of best two out of three games, the Toronto golfers having been defeated last spring on the Country Club links in Brighton. The third and deciding contest will probably be played here on Labor Day, which is also a holiday in Canada.

The Thistle Golf Club has done a good deal toward fostering this sport, as a result of which a large number of Rochester people have taken it up. Golf seems bound to become popular in Rochester.

COUNTRY CLUB FESTIVITIES.

Lawn Fete and Dancing To-Morrow—Golf and Music on Monday.

The Country Club will observe Independence Day twice this year, one occasion being to-morrow and the other on Monday. For to-morrow evening the house committee has arranged a lawn fete. A dancing floor will be built on the lawn and the grounds will be illumined with lanterns. Dancing will begin at 8 o'clock and supper will be served at 10. George Wilder, secretary, at the Central Bank, will receive applications for tickets which will cost 75 cents. He wishes also to be notified in each case whether the club is to provide for transportation. It is imperative that he be notified as the committee must know for how many to provide.

The club traps will run on regular schedule. Extra four-in-hand drags will leave Brighton at 7:45 and 8:30 P. M., returning when most convenient. But fifty table d'hote dinners will be served on July 3d and to the persons first booking their names with the steward.

On Monday, July 5th, the Genesee Falls band will play on the lawn from 2 o'clock till sundown. Instead of table d'hote an elaborate buffet lunch will be served.

There will be a golf handicap medal play beginning at 10 A. M. Cards must be handed in by 3:30 P. M. The entrance fee will be 50c, to be paid to captain or to the steward of the club. Afternoon play will be team and individual matches, arranged between members of the club. Extra traps leave Brighton at 9:45 A. M., 10:45 A. M., and 12:30 P. M., and will return as needed.

COUNTRY CLUB LAWN FETE.

The Observance of the Fourth—Summer Trap Schedule.

A lawn fete will be held this evening at the Country Club. The house committee, which has charge of all the special attractions, has arranged for a large number of lights about the grounds and a platform will be erected on the lawn for dancing. The dancing will begin at 8 o'clock and at 10 o'clock supper will be served.

The guests for the fete will be met by the regular club traps and by two extra four-in-hand drags, which will leave Brighton at 7:45 and 8:30 o'clock.

On Monday there will be a golf handicap medal play in the morning, beginning at 10 o'clock, and team and individual matches in the afternoon. The Genesee Falls band will furnish music for the occasion, and a supper will be served. The regular trips of the club trap will be re-enforced on Monday by three extra trips, at 9:45 and 10:45 A. M. and 12:30 P. M. from Brighton.

The following is the summer schedule of the traps which went into effect on Tuesday:

COUNTRY CLUB CELEBRATED.

Lawn Fete, With Dancing and Fireworks Last Evening.

The County Club held a very successful lawn fete on the beautiful grounds in front of the club house on East avenue, beyond Brighton last evening. Hundreds of Chinese and Japanese lanterns dangling from the branches of the trees and strung from long wires about the grounds, made it a brilliant scene. A dancing pavilion had been provided on the lawn, and the Genesee Falls band played Damrosch waltzes to the trip of many feet. Red and green lights were burned continually, and their color effects added greatly to the effectiveness of the scene. Tables were set about the lawn and refreshments served to the visitors.

The house committee, consisting of John Harry Stedman, Elbridge Adams, J. Craig Powers and Gilman N. Perkins, had arranged an elaborate supper, which was served on the porch of the club house. About 10 o'clock colored lights were burned all about the golf grounds at the different holes. The effect was very pretty. The guests for the fete were met at Brighton by the club traps and two extra four-in-hand drags. It was an evening of very enjoyable gayety, and the crowd which numbered nearly two hundred of the members and their friends, had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

On Monday there will be a golf handicap medal play in the morning, beginning at 10 o'clock, and team and individual matches in the afternoon. The Genesee Falls band will furnish music for the occasion, and a supper will be served. The regular trips of the club trap will be reinforced on Monday by three extra trips, at 9:45 and 10:45 A. M. and 12:30 P. M. from Brighton.

ROCHESTER TEAM WON GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Defeated the Otsego Club at Utica Contest.

SURPRISE TO CRITICS

Country Club Team Underrated—Otsego Was Sure of Victory—Men of National Reputation on Defeated Team.

Special Dispatch to Democrat and Chronicle.

Utica, July 9.—The championship cup offered by the Central New York Golf League was won this afternoon on the Sadaquada links by the Rochester Country Club team, which defeated the Otsego club after a stubbornly fought contest by three holes.

Rochester's victory was unexpected. The Otsego Club, after downing the strong Albany club by four holes yesterday, was sure of the cup. Otsego relied upon its two experts, Spottswood D. Bowers of St. Andrews and Jasper Lynch of Lakewood, to pull the team out of a tight place.

Rochester had not a single man of national reputation in the game. The easy defeat of Auburn the day before was believed to be more the result of Auburn's weakness than Rochester's strength, but to-day the visiting experts found that Rochester had been underrated.

Otsego found the Rochester men all well-developed players. Captain Anstice, who has had a hard run of luck this season, said that his team would have been much stronger had his place been taken by G. T. Curtiss, one of the best of the Rochester players.

But Captain Austice had the game to win or lose in the final round with Morgan. He kept his head while his opponent was rattled and won the match by his own score, four up.

Powers was in fine form in his game with Bowers who has been runner up in nearly all the big tournaments about New York, Lakewood, Seabright, Baltimore and Knollwood. Had the Rochester man been more skilful with the putting iron he would have had an even chance of beating the St. Andrews track. His drives were long and well directed and some of his long approaches were marvels of accurate play, but once on the putting green he was no match for Bowers. Powers' drives were brilliant.

THE OTSEGO TEAM DECISIVELY BEATEN

The Country Club Outclassed the Visiting Golfers.

A VERY EASY VICTORY

Rochester Players Twenty-three
Strokes to the Good—Curtiss Beat
Lynch Five Up—Bowers the Only Visiting Winner.

HE most optimistic member of the Country Club never expected its team to score such a decisive victory over the Otsego golf team as that of yesterday morning at the Country Club's links.

S. D. Bowers beat J. Craig Powers. It was the only instance where a visiting player was not beaten by his opponent. Mr. Bowers is one of the best players in the country, and Mr. Powers was not up to his usual form yesterday, although he was beaten by but three holes and by but one stroke to each hole.

The day was very fine, the pleasant breeze not being strong enough to affect the play particularly. The greens-keeper had the links in fine condition, and the playing was generally good, in some cases exceptionally so.

The greatest achievement of the day upon the part of the Rochester men appeared to be the victory Gurney T. Curtiss scored over Jasper Lynch, the Lakewood, New Jersey, course record-holder, which course has been played by most crack golfers of the United States. Mr. Curtiss displayed great coolness and steadiness, his famous opponent's presence not only failing to disconcert him, but seeming to spur him on to better golfing than he had ever done, his course record being lowered from 88 to 84, within two holes of the record for the links. Lynch was beaten by five holes, which is probably the biggest defeat he has sustained in a long while.

But Mr. Curtiss's record was equaled by that of Mr. Bowman, who played in the best form he has yet shown, and also made the course in 84, a new record for himself. Mr. Bowman had for an opponent G. C. Peir, a young player who is considered very promising. He was unable to hold Mr. Bowman after the first hole and was beaten by seven holes and eleven strokes for the course.

Mr. Bowers, with 89 strokes to his credit, made the best record for the visitors, Mr. Lynch going over the links in 92. None of the other members of his team scored better than 95, while the poorest score of the Country Club was 94. Mr. Averill did not play out his fifth hole on the way out, the result being that there can be no record for him in the matter of strokes to cover the course, although he beat his opponent by six holes.

The visiting team was rather confident of victory, and the game was one granted at its request after having been beaten at Utica. Quite a number of the club members and their friends watched the play of the two teams.

Golf is an easy game to understand, although few can play it as it was played yesterday. It is a gentle exercise, but a delicate one, a player comparing it to billiards in its requirements of coolness, steadiness and accuracy of stroke and correctness of eye. The general outline of match play is that the player who gets his gutta percha ball into each hole with the least number of strokes, from his teeing or starting ground, wins the hole and counts it as one up, and if he wins the next hole he counts it two up. If he and his opponent reach a hole in the same number of strokes they are tied on the hole and it counts for neither.

Medal play is where the number of strokes used to cover the entire course is counted, putting the ball into each of the eighteen holes. While in match play the man who beats an opponent generally covers the course in a less number of strokes, it does not necessarily follow that this is always so, as the winner of the match may get into trouble at hazard or in some other way and waste an indefinite number of strokes, at that particular hole, but may play in good enough form at other holes to win a majority, his total of strokes being greater than his opponent's at the finish of the course. The summary of the play yesterday was as follows:

To-day the first and second rounds for the open championship and a driving contest for a prize presented by the Chicago Golf Club will take place.

SEMI-FINALS AT WHEATON.

Betts and Whigham Will Fight for the Golf Championship.

THE EAST AGAINST THE WEST.

Whigham Outplays Douglas, but an Extra Hole Is Necessary for a Decisive Result in the Betts-McDonald Match, the Latter Entering a Protest. Long List of Professionals to Compete To-day.

Chicago, Ill., September 17.—The most sensational event of the National Golf tournament occurred yesterday when W. R. Betts of the Shinnecock Hill Golf Club beat C. B. McDonald of the Chicago Golf Club. MacDonald was the 1895 champion, being displaced by Whigham in 1896, and was confidently expected to reach the championship this year. At the beginning of the games, Betts was a comparatively unknown man and when it was announced that he was one of the four who had qualified for the semi-finals, he was not considered a remote possibility. In regard to the two matches yesterday the interest centered about the one between Whigham and Douglas and it was thought that the result would be very close, with the chances all against Whigham. The other match was reckoned merely as a matter of a few holes before Betts' prospects would be permanently dimmed.

Betts' victory is a desirable outcome. It brings two young men together for the finals and it also definitely matches Eastern and Western golf. Betts really won over MacDonald by superior nerve. The latter is, perhaps, the better all around player, but the younger man kept cool. In his match Wednesday MacDonald had a dispute over a technicality and a similar question came up yesterday with Betts. At the eighteenth hole Betts was one up, but MacDonald protested an error back at the fifth hole and the nineteenth hole was played, making it Betts' match without any doubt.

The easy defeat of Douglas by Whigham was the other surprise of the day. Douglas has been playing brilliant golf throughout, but he went off very badly yesterday. Whigham's match with Betts to-morrow in the finals will be very interesting and the belief is that he will for the second time secure the championship medal. The scores in the semi-finals follow:

Whigham:
Out	2 5 4 5 5 5 4 3 3-32
In	2 4 5 8
Douglas:
Out	1 5 6 4 5 5 5 4 3-47
In	2 5 5 8
McDonald:
Out	5 4 5 6 6 6 5 4 4-46
In	3 5 5 5 5 6 4 5 5-44
Betts:
Out	4 5 4 7 7 6 5 3 3-47
In	3 5 4 6 5 5 5 5 5-43

The open championship to-day shows the entries to be almost entirely professional. The contest is thirty holes, medal play, and the complete list of contestants is as follows: Devereux, Emmett, H. J. Club Championship

Country Club's Annual Championships to be Held the Next Two Weeks.

Commencing next Saturday the annual golf tournament of the Country Club will be held on the club's links and will continue for two weeks. There are three competitions for the tourney, the club championship, the annual club handicap and the consolation handicap.

For the club championship the trophy is a new cup donated by the Tamarack Club. The cup is to be held by the winner for one year, and if won for three years becomes the holder's property. First and second prizes are offered in addition to the cup. Entries for this event must be sent to Secretary George Wilder of the Club by Friday, September 24th.

The winner of the annual club handicap.

the second event of the tourney, will hold the club cup for one year. There will also be first, second and third prizes in the shape of small cups, to remain the property of the winner. The consolation handicap, or third event, will be open to all except winners in the first two events of the tourney. Entries for the club handicap must be sent in by Thursday, September 30th.

The programme for the tournament is as follows:

Saturday, September 25th—Club championship, qualifying round, medal play. Course 18 holes, and lowest 16 scores to qualify.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 27th to 29th—First round of the club championship.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 30th to October 2d—Second round of the club championship and opening of the club handicap of 18 holes, medal play.

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 4th to 7th.—Semi-final rounds of the club championship.

Saturday, October 9th—Finals of the club championship. Consolation handicap play.

A large number of entries are expected for the events arranged by tournament committee.

GOLF.

Drawings and Programme for the Country Club Tournament.

During the first three days of this week the first round of the Country Club's golf championship will be played. Sixteen players qualified Saturday and were paired off as follows:

Mumford and Bowman.
Watson and G. Wilder.
Du Puy and Anstice.
L. L. Allen and Angel.
Walter Powers and G. T. Curtis.
Carpenter and Adams.
J. C. Powers and Hudson.
B. Little and E. G. Miner.

The time when this first round shall be played is to be arranged between the opponents. They have three days from which to choose. It is rather unfortunate that J. C. Powers and C. B. Hudson should have been paired, as both are crack players, and the loser in this first round will have no further part in the championship contest.

The second sixteen of Saturday's players will compete for a special cup. The drawing yesterday resulted thus:

Ellwanger and Stedman.
Millard and Webb.
W. J. Curtis and S. Wilder, Jr.
Fitzsimmons and H. P. Brewster.
C. Little and Eastwood.
Otis and Harlan.
E. Perkins and Sage.
Keyes and F. P. Allen.

It was intended to have three competitions but the special cup for the second sixteen and the insertion of the women's handicap medal play (9 holes) for Thursday, October 7th, makes five. In addition to these mentioned will be the annual club handicap, the winner to hold the club cup for one year. For this event there will also be small cups—first, second and third prizes, to remain the property of the winners. This will occur October 21.

The other will be the consolation handicap, open to all except winners in the other competitions, and will be held on Saturday, October 9th.

The second round of the club championship will be held next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and the semi-final round on the first Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in October. These will also be the dates for the contests of the "second sixteen." The finals will occur Saturday, October 9th.

THE GAMES YESTERDAY

Brook Tourney.

Two contests in the play for the Country golf championship were held yesterday and one in the play for the special cup.

In the championship play Dr. Carpenter won from G. T. Curtis by the score of 3 up and 2 to play while L. L. Allen defeated J. A. Du Puy by a score of 3 up and 2 to play.

In the special cup play Otis won from Eastwood, by the score of 3 up.

There are three men left in each series. In the club championships, the survivors are Bowman, Allen and Carpenter, the first two being matched for the semi-finals, while Dr. Carpenter is to play the winner of the Hudson-Little match, yet to be completed.

In the special cup play Otis and Sage will compete and S. Wilder, Jr., will compete with the winner of the Ellwanger-Millard contest.

Subjoined are the drawings for to-day's play. Handicaps will be announced in the morning.

Handicaps in golf are figured from a Bogey score. Colonel Bogey is an imaginary opponent, and is a first-class player, being able to make the links in as few strokes as is possible, barring miracles.

The Bogey score of this course is seventy, and if a man gets a handicap of twenty it means that with good consistent golf, (as he plays it he should do the course in ninety. If he plays better than he usually does, he would come—when his handicap is taken from his gross score—below the seventy, and the man doing the best work, considering his previous play, will be the lowest in net score.

The drawings for the handicaps:

DuPuy plays H. P. Brewster.
G. Wilder plays W. J. Curtis.
B. Little plays M. ner.
G. T. Curtis plays Hudson.
Dugan plays Webb.
V. M. Smith plays Killip.
Mumford plays L. L. Allen.
Howe plays Sage.

E. Perkins plays Ellwanger.
Anstice plays W. Powers.
Moore plays Averell.
Carpenter plays Angel.
Hollister plays Mathews.
Willard plays Keyes.
J. C. Powers plays Macomber.

Harian plays Watson.
C. Little plays Eastwood.

IT TOOK A FULL COURSE TO DECIDE

Curtis and Hudson Had a Close Golf Contest.

WON BY THE FORMER

He Had Just One Hole More Than Hudson, But Had Covered the Course in Three Less Strokes.

LEVER golf was witnessed by a fair number of spectators who saw Gurney T. Curtis win an exceedingly good game of golf from C. B. Hudson yesterday afternoon on the Country Club's links. The contest was considerably better than the score shows. It was not until the full eighteen holes had been played that the winner was decided in the person of Mr. Curtis, who has played good, consistent golf all the season.

It is decided that the Buffalo Country Club will play here Saturday, although it is not yet known how large a team will be brought and so the local team has not yet been picked. The team play will occupy the links to the exclusion of other golf Saturday, which date was originally named for the finals in the club championships and in the special cup play. Both of these classes have now narrowed down to the finals. In the championships Mr. Curtis will meet J. P. Bowman. In the special cup play the only competitors left are Ernest Millard and Raymond Otis. It is not expected that the finals will be played to-day, and possibly not to-morrow. The tale of yesterday's play may be read by the initiated in the following:

Buffalo and Rochester Golf Teams Meet To-Day.

The Buffalo Country Club team will play the Rochester Country Club team a game of golf to-day on the local club's links. It is possible that two team matches will be played as it is expected that a second team will be brought by Buffalo. The team to meet it, if Buffalo sends two, will be picked to-day. The first teams of the clubs have been selected as follows:

Rochester—Curtis, J. C. Powers, Hudson, Bowman, Carpenter, L. L. Allen.

Buffalo—Hedstrom, Grey, Ransom, King, Cady, David or Keefe.

the Rochester

team match with
Messrs. Hedstrom,
Cady, Gray, Ran-

Keep, of the Buffalo Country Club on the local club's links in Brighton yesterday, clearly demonstrated their superiority over the visitors, who, none the less, played some good golf. It was a perfect day for golf, except for a high wind that prevailed. The Rochester team won by a margin of eighteen holes, and much of the credit for the victory belongs to C. B. Hudson, one of the best of the local cracks, who defeated his opponent, Mr. Gray, by a score of eleven holes up.

The members of the Buffalo team arrived in the city Friday evening, accompanied by a large number of other members of the Buffalo Country Club, including a number of ladies. Several more visitors arrived yesterday morning. They were royally welcomed and entertained at luncheon and dinner at the pretty club house of the local club. Several of the visiting golfers stayed over and attended a smoking concert which was giving at the Genesee Valley Club last evening. Several of the visitors who possess unusual merit in musical and elocutionary lines assisted in the entertainment and their renditions contributed largely to the pleasure of those who attended it.

Exceeding interest was manifested in the contests on the golf links and all of the games had a large following of spectators. The different contests were very close and exciting and three of them resulted in ties. Mr. Hudson played the best golf of the day, covering the course of eighteen holes in eighty-one strokes. Mr. Gray, who was pitting against him, did not show up in his usual form. The following table shows the winners of the different contests:

Cady	0	Powers	0
Gray	0	Hudson	11
Ransom	0	Bowman	0
Tyng	0	Carpenter	4
Keep	0	Allen	3

Rochester won the contest by eighteen holes.

Hedstrom and Curtis did not keep their score by stakes but their play was about eighty-four strokes. Their match, as well as the match between Cady and Powers and that between Bowman and Ransom were closely contested, each resulting in a tie.

In the Curtis-Hedstrom match, the Buffalo man won the second, fifth, sixth, eleventh, fifteenth and sixteenth holes, while Mr. Curtis captured the third, fourth, seventh, eighth, tenth and eighteenth holes. The first, ninth, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth and seventeenth holes were tied. The detailed scores of the remaining five matches follow:

The Rochester and Buffalo Country Clubs had a series of best two out of three contests last year, which resulted in a victory for the Rochester golfers, who captured two of the contests, while the Buffalonians won one. The Rochester golfers will probably play a return match at Buffalo on Saturday, October 26th, two weeks hence.

No further play in the Rochester Country Club tourney was had yesterday, but it is expected that the finals will be decided early this week.

G. T. CURTIS WON GOLF CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

Victor by Two Up Over J. P. Bowman Yesterday.

A VERY CLEVER CONTEST

The Difference in the Score by Strokes Was But One in Favor of Curtis — Even Score the First Half.

Gurney T. Curtis won the championship cup of the Rochester Country Club yesterday afternoon by beating John P. Bowman in the final round of the club's golf championships. The wind was very high and prevented the score of strokes from being as low as it otherwise would have been. The play was exceedingly good and the two finished within one stroke of each other, although Mr. Curtis won by the score of two up for holes.

The course out was tied in strokes, each covering it in 45, although Mr. Curtis had one hole the best of it. The course in was done by Mr. Curtis in 39 and by Mr. Bowman in 40, with the advantage of one hole again in Mr. Curtis's favor, making a total of two in his favor. It was a very close match and a very good one.

Mr. Bowman started out by winning the first hole, with a score of 5. It took 6 for Mr. Curtis, but the latter holed out in 3 for the next and Mr. Bowman's score was 4. Mr. Curtis holed out in 4 for each of the two succeeding holes and Mr. Bowman's score was five for each. The fifth and sixth holes were halved at 6 and 5 respectively. The seventh went to Mr. Bowman in 4, while Mr. Curtis holed out in 5. He made the same score for the eighth but Mr. Bowman's best was six. Exceedingly good work on his part at the ninth hole brought him in with 5, to 7 for Mr. Curtis. Each had gone out in 45 strokes and Mr. Bowman had won three holes, to four for Mr. Curtis. Two holes had been halved in this course.

The course in was started by two halved holes, each being made in 4. The next one was scored for Mr. Curtis in 3, with 4 for Mr. Bowman. He repeated Mr. Curtis's trick at the next holes, making it in 3, while the latter holed out in 4. The next, or fifth on the course in, was won by Mr. Curtis, with a score of 4, to 5 for Mr. Bowman, who won the sixth with 6 while Mr. Curtis's score was 7. The same close play followed for the last three holes, Mr. Curtis winning the seventh with 4 and Mr. Bowman holing out in 5. He captured the eighth by a score of 5, to 6 for Mr. Curtis who took the last hole by three, Mr. Bowman holing out in 4. The latter's total for the course in was 40, Mr. Curtis covering it in 39. Two holes were halved, Mr. Bowman won three and Mr. Curtis four, again, which gave him eight to Mr. Bowman's six. The scores:

This afternoon the women's handicap medal play will be held. There are sixteen entries. The tie between Messrs. Clarke, Millard and Miner, for second, in the handicap medal play of a week ago Saturday, has been settled in favor of Mr. Clarke. The final round in the special cup play, between Mr. Millard and Mr. Otis, has not yet been played.

WOMEN PLAYERS IN HANDICAP GOLF

Mrs. Whitney Won Over a Nine-Holes Course.

TWO TIED FOR SECOND

Mrs. Eastwood and Mrs. Little Made the Same Net Score, Although Mrs. Eastwood's Gross Score Was the Best of the Day.

CONSIDERABLE interest was manifested in the women's handicap golf tournament at the Country Club yesterday afternoon. A large number of spectators was present and watched the play closely. Three prizes were offered, a first and second for the two lowest net scores and one for the lowest gross score. Mrs. Whitney developed unexpected strength and took first place easily. She was fairly handicapped from her previous records, but by good play reduced her best previous score by ten strokes. For second place Mrs. Eastwood and Mrs. Little run tied, while Mrs. Eastwood took the prize for the lowest gross score.

The contestants were enthusiastic over the success of the tournament, and hereafter the monthly handicap for men will be supplemented by a monthly handicap for women.

A mixed foursome tournament will be held this fall, if possible, which will be an exceedingly interesting contest. The score of yesterday's contest resulted as follows:

Mrs. A. B. Eastwood and Mrs. B. C. Little played off their tie for second place in the women's golf championship at the Country Club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Eastwood won handily and played most excellent golf in doing so. She had the lowest gross score on Tuesday, at which time the championships were played, when she went over the course in 65 strokes, her handicap of 12 making her net score 53. At that time Mrs. Little made a gross score of 83, and by reason of a handicap of 30 her net score agreed with that of Mrs. Eastwood.

Yesterday the same handicaps were retained, but Mrs. Eastwood did even better than on Tuesday, going around in 61, her net score thus being 49. Mrs. Little, on the other hand, did not score quite so well, her gross score yesterday being 87, four more strokes than she used Tuesday. The scores:

Otis Beat Millard.

Raymond Otis and Ernest Millard finished their contest in the final round for the special cup, which competition was held at the same time with the Country Club's championships. Mr. Otis was the winner, capturing the cup with a score of 5 up and 4 to play. The score by holes:

There is probably as widespread interest in the club over the approaching mixed foursomes as in any event of the season. The time has not been set for these contests, but they will necessarily be played very shortly.

ANOTHER GOLF VICTORY.

The Rochester Country Club Beat the Sadaquadas Easily.

The Sadaquada Golf Club of Utica was handily beaten on the links of the Country Club yesterday by a score of 22 up. The high wind which prevailed prevented low scoring. The visiting team arrived here late on Friday night and played over the course yesterday morning, in order to become familiar with it. The contest took place between the two clubs in the afternoon. SANDS WINS GOLD MEDAL

Tournament of the West-

FENN AND MENZIES SECOND

Good Players and Interesting Games in the Contest for the Willmount
Cup—Many Ladies Will Play
To-day in a Mixed Foursome.

William H. Sands, who jumped up prominently again in the first rank of golfers by winning the John Reid gold medal and championship of St. Andrew's, added new honors to his fame yesterday on the links of the Westchester Golf Club, near West Farms, by making a new amateur record for the links. It was made in the preliminary round of the club's first open tournament, which will continue through Saturday. The players turning in the lowest sixteen scores qualified for the hole-play rounds, of which the winner in the final match will receive the Willmount Cup.

Sands led all the contestants, his score for the eighteen holes being 81 strokes, and this gave him the gold medal offered for the best score of the day. His game was steady throughout. In the afternoon he continued his winning form by beating Howard A. Colby of the Essex County Club at Orange. The latter gave Sands a good contest. He took the first two holes, and it was not until the seventh hole was played out that Sands got the lead. By making the fifteenth and sixteenth holes in the low number of three strokes each, he took the game by three holes and two to play.

Arthur H. Fenn, the recent winner at Knollwood, and F. W. Menzies each did 91 in the morning, the best records next to Sands. Fenn beat L. C. Mortimer without difficulty in the afternoon by six holes and four to play. The latter is a Columbia University student, and plays a plucky game. He is a left-handed golfer, but gets long drives. After one of his longest yesterday, 190 yards, the ball unfortunately fell at the foot of a stone wall, and in trying to send it over on the next shot it hit one of the top stones, and bounding back hit Mortimer a stinging blow in the neck. Menzies had a close match with the West Point golfer, Lieut. R. B. Davis, but won by three holes and one to play. Dr. E. C. Rushmore, who has been the Tuxedo champion for two years, made a good score of 92, and in the afternoon beat one of the home club contestants by the large score of seven up and five to play.

The links are 2,488 yards in circuit, possessing many sporty features, while the views of Long Island Sound obtainable from certain points add picturesqueness to the course. The five lowest scores in full are:
