

1895

The Country Club of Rochester

Articles

1944

16

New Years Eve Merry One At Clubs

IT was almost—but not quite—a good old-fashioned New Years Eve. There were bright lights and music and dancing in all the town and country clubs, and crowds of congenial friends gathered to hail together the coming of a new—and perhaps better—year.

But the parties were, for the most part, informal, and there was at most of the clubs conspicuous absence of the elaborate decorations and favors and professional entertainment that featured New Years Eve parties in pre-war years.

* * *

Early evening found members of the Country Club of Rochester gathering for a buffet supper, while dancing started at 11 o'clock and breakfast was served at 1:30 a. m. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Malm, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Nottingham, Maj. and Mrs. David Bellamy, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Shirey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Gordon Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler C. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Gumaer, Mr. and Mrs. Harvard Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Hargrave, Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. Sage, Mr. and Mrs. Newton B. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Siebert, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ritter Shumway, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. DePuy and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Beach Jr.

* * *

Middle-aged Man for stable work.
Room and board at club. The Country Club of Rochester Stables,
East Ave. and Elmwood. 36
Dov wanted in fitting room. E. P.

* * *
Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Allen Stebbins of East Avenue entertained at dinner Tuesday at the Country Club of Rochester, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell Iselin of New York City and Mrs. Walter Dabney Blair of Tarrytown, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Spencer of East Avenue.
* * *

Horses, Cattle, Other Stock	71
Chestnut Mare—Hunter type, aged.
Country Club of Rochester.	317
Cows—Young, healthy, about to VISIT MRS. KEATING.

* * *
Mrs. Kenneth B. Keating of Knollwood Drive entertained at a skating party Saturday at the Country Club of Rochester in honor of the birthday of her daughter,
Miss Judy Keating.
* * *

Waiter — Private club, all year around; permanent position, good salary and maintenance. Country Club of Rochester, Hillside 2660.
711

Warehouse Workers Good

Four Events Likely To Get RDGA Okay

When delegates of the dozen member clubs of the Rochester District Golf Association meet at the Rochester Club Wednesday night, the chief order of business will be the adoption of an elastic schedule for the season, with a definite "if" hanging over the whole proceedings.

At a meeting of the executive committee last month, it was agreed to recommend a four-tournament schedule with the provision that the whole thing is off if there is another pleasure driving ban.

Last season's four-event chart was wiped out by the driving ban, but officials are hopeful that the curtailed program will survive '44 gasoline restrictions.

As it stands now, the likelihood is that the RDGA title meet, the Clint Patchen Memorial Senior Championship, the junior test and an early season 18-hole medal tourney will be on the docket.

Last year's program called for the title event to be played at Brook-Lea and, as this tournament is awarded on a rotating schedule, the Cold Water course probably again will be selected. Whether the unplayed '43 awards of the junior to Monroe and senior to Irondequoit will stand is a question which will be settled at the meeting.

RDGA officers were re-elected last season for the duration. They are: President, Foster Yawger; vicepresident, Ted Blutau; secretary, Gay Levis; treasurer, Gordon (Red) Callaghan.

Member clubs of the district body are Oak Hill, Country Club of Rochester, Monroe, Irondequoit, Midvale, Locust Hill, Brook-Lea, Ridgmont, Lake Shore, Genesee, Durand and Canandaigua.

Three Games Set Today at JYMA

Three basketball games are scheduled today at the JYMA, starting at 7 p. m. The feature attraction will pit the Adelphis against the Spartans in an A League clash.

The first game pits the Unity Club against the Royal Jrs. in the first of a three-game series for the Class C. championship. The second tilt brackets the Rho Gamma Nu against the Royals in the second of their playoff series.

CASH FOR CA

Do you ha longer war cash? Bri
look it ove

... OR IF Y
Bring it in at men put it in mates free!

Own the Thrilling
"VANUC T

35 YEARS AGO TODAY—1909

Highest temperature was 40 degrees: lowest, 36 degrees.

“At a special meeting of the Country Club of Rochester, presided over by J. Warren Cutler, held at the Genesee Valley Club, the Board of Stewards was authorized to make a mortgage for the purchase of the land occupied by the club in Brighton. The lease of the premises from Augusta B. Parsons contains an option for purchase.”

more Hotel, mezzanine floor. 711
Assistant Chef — Private club, all year around; permanent position; live in or out. Country Club of Rochester, Hillside 2600. 712
Automobile—Metal man. good work.

City Firm Founded in 1819 Marks 125th Year Today

One hundred and twenty-five years in Rochester's pioneer paper business will be celebrated by employes of the Alling and Cory Company who will mark the occasion at 6:30 p. m. today in the Country Club of Rochester.

President Richard M. Harris will recall the struggles and victories of the business which began as a small stationery and book store in 1819. Then Rochester was a village of 1,300 population and transportation was uncertain. The biggest news of the day was on everybody's lips—the first American steamboat had crossed the Atlantic.

The company, which started as a little retail store, grew and eight years later it occupied more than 2,000 square feet of floor space. Today the company's warehouses utilize 497,000 square feet of space to house its stocks.

In 1834, William Alling, who had been a clerk in the store, bought out the property. Almost as soon as he took over, the country was hit by depression. While many more powerfully backed industries failed, the Alling and Cory Company survived and prospered.

The little retail store, which started on a rutted side street of what was to become the village of Rochester, has grown to occupy large fireproof warehouses in Rochester, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, New York and Cleveland, as well as stocks in Akron, Ohio, and Syracuse.

Tonight tribute will be paid to the growth of the industry, a large share of whose paper products now are supplied for vital war purposes. President Harris will distribute to the employes advance copies of a historical book covering the company's growth and development during its 125 years of existence.

Honor guests tonight will include Mrs. Richard M. Harris, Ellsworth Geist of Boston, Clark Weymouth, Stanley Parkot of Buffalo and two company directors, H. Kenneth Weed of New York and Josef Buerger of Pittsburgh.

During the dinner group songs, old and new will be sung under the leadership of Dave Harvard, accompanied by Irene Gedney Grabb. An orchestra will furnish music for dancing until midnight, with bridge and a variety of games for others.

Opening Slated July 3 for City School Camps

The Northside YMCA Committee of Management will open on July 3 summer day camps at Schools 20 and 39, it was announced yesterday.

The camp program will be under the direction of Raymond E. Francis of the YMCA staff. Day camp director will be a high school faculty man, with several high school assistants, Francis said. The staff will function at School 20 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and at School 39 on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Program hours at both schools will be from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Francis said registration is now open.

Latin Americans To Visit Industries Here Next Week

A whirlwind view of Rochester's industries heads the program for the 16 Latin American republic representatives who will visit here next week.

The party, whose trip is being sponsored by the New York State Department of Commerce, will arrive Wednesday night. Thursday the group will inspect the Eastman Kodak Company, Bausch and Lomb Company, Taylor Instrument Companies and other industrial plants.

The Women's Committee of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce will entertain wives of the delegates at an afternoon tea, with civic groups greeting delegates at a dinner in the Country Club of Rochester Thursday evening. The visitors, members of the Inter-American Development Commission, will go to Albany from here.

Help Wanted—Female 48
L aundress—Five days weekly, live in or out. Country Club of Rochester, phone
Hillside 2600. 727
Laundry Help 18-45: several openings

Country Clubs Have Record Crowds

ROCHESTER society celebrated Memorial Day by flocking to its country clubs in numbers that exceeded even the record crowds of pre-war days.

At every club it was the same story. Under the brilliant holiday sun the golf fairways were thronged and club terraces and verandas attracted children and non-golfing parents. It was a family day. With all the clubs serving meals, servantless housewives welcomed the opportunity to shut up the house and spend a carefree day at the club away from bothersome food preparation. Club managers, coping with help shortages and record crowds, were forced to turn down many last-minute reservations.

Out at Oak Hill, the swimming pool, which opened for use at noon, vied for popularity with the two golf courses as the biggest crowd in the club's history gathered for a day of relaxation. Hundreds of reservations had to be refused for the a la carte luncheon and buffet supper. Although the pool opened for temporary use yesterday, it will not be "officially" opened until June 24, and will be available for use only on Saturdays and Sundays until that date. With perhaps that in mind, ardent swimmers, both young and old, made the best possible use of their time yesterday as they thronged the pool until late in the evening.

Down at the Rochester Yacht Club basin, sailboats pulled out early for the morning races and the club had an almost deserted atmosphere during the morning hours. But as the boats returned in the afternoon, families and friends gathered, and a couple of hundred guests were on hand in the cool, breeze-swept clubhouse for tea and evening dinner, which was followed by dancing until 1.

At the Country Club of Rochester it was traditional family day, with the Children's Parade, a highlight of Country Club Memorial Days for 49 years, following the morning golf sweepstakes for Red Cross benefit. Luncheon under the picturesque, gnarled old apple trees on the lawn fulfilled another tradition of long standing, and the afternoon was spent in more golf events and a treasure hunt for junior members.

NOVEL RDGA EVENT OPENS AT BROOK-LEA

Goodrich Favored In Top Amateur Tourney

Rochester's No. 1 amateur golf event, the District Golf Association title meet, will open at Brook-Lea Saturday with an 18-hole qualifier for the most unusual tourney ever staged by the RDGA.

Cliff Goodrich, the sweet-swinging Brook-Lea walloper who is certain to be the top favorite for the title, will have the advantage of playing over his home course in quest of his first RDGA championship.

Such competitors as Gene Robinson, Brook-Lea, and the powerful Oak Hill entry of Bill Chapin, Fred Allen and Harry Bill, along with the veteran Ed Randall, winner of the RDGA one-day tournament last month, rate as the top threats to Goodrich in his quest for the crown won in 1942 by Midvale's Tony Durante, now a decorated Air Forces gunner in the European theater.

Weldon Won Inaugural

There was no tournament last year because of driving restrictions, marking the first break in the event's history since Jim Weldon won the inaugural in 1929.

A field of 16, rather than the customary 32, will qualify for the championship flight, with RDGA officials planning on qualifying five flights, with a sixth to be added if the size of the field justifies such a move.

What makes this year's tourney unusual is the fact that, after Saturday's qualifier, several courses will be used for the various flights, in order to take the pressure off Brook-Lea for the long holiday weekend. Finals are scheduled for Tuesday, July 4.

Tuesday, July 2.

Here's the way the tournament schedule shapes up:

Saturday: 18-hole qualifying round at Brook-Lea.

Sunday (afternoon): First round play. Championship and second flights will be staged at Brook-Lea, third flight at Oak Hill, fourth at Country Club of Rochester, fifth at Monroe and sixth, if necessary, at Ridgemont.

Monday: Morning and afternoon, quarter-final and semifinal play, along with beaten eights of all flights, at the same clubs as Sunday.

Tuesday: 36-hole championship final, morning and afternoon, and all other flight and beaten eight finals, over 18-holes in the afternoon, at Brook-Lea.

The usual stag dinner and Calcutta pool drawing will be held Saturday night at Brook-Lea.

Also on this week's docket is the annual Ad-Maneuvers event of the Ad Club, scheduled for Wednesday at Lake Shore.

In addition to golf, Ad Clubbers will try their hands at swimming, baseball and other sports, with a dinner scheduled at night.

ROCHESTER DEMOCRAT AND CHRONICLE. FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1944

RDGA TITLE TOURNEY DRAWS ONLY 66

EVENT OPENS TOMORROW AT BROOK-LEA

By FRANK LILLICH

A slim field of 66, which nevertheless will show virtually every topflight golfer in the district, was paired last night for the qualifying round of the 16th Rochester District Golf Association championship tournament at Brook-Lea.

With Cliff Goodrich carrying the onus of pre-tournament favoritism over the home course, the field will play 18 holes tomorrow, with match play to start with one round Sunday afternoon.

All flights will play two rounds Monday, with the championship scheduled over the 36-hole route Tuesday and other flight and beaten eight finals scheduled for Tuesday afternoon.

Post-Entries Accepted

The qualifier and match play in the first two flights will be staged at Brook-Lea, as will all final round matches. Third flight play at present is carded at Oak Hill and the fourth flight at the Country Club of Rochester, to avoid congestion at Brook-Lea over the holiday weekend.

The smallness of the field virtually insures the playing of only four flights, with a possibility that it will be cut to three, depending of the number of qualifier entrants which skips match play. Post-entries will be accepted for the tournament, which may swell the entry list.

RDGA officials last night urged all entries to bring their own caddies, pointing out that Brook-Lea's caddies will be used almost entirely by club members. The starting times from noon to 2 p. m. tomorrow have been reserved for club members.

A $25 War Bond will reward tomorrow's tourney medalist, with a $50 bond to the champion and a $25 bond to the runner-up. Merchandise prizes will be awarded in the various other flights.

Acc. Golfers Entered

In the various other flights.

Ace Golfers Entered

Despite the size of the field the championship flight is up to standard. Along with Goodrich, such entries as Gene Robinson, Ed Olsen and Hank Goebel, also of Brook-Lea; Bill Chapin, Harry Bill, Fred Allen and Ed Randall of Oak Hill; Carl Christ and Carl Gath of Lake Shore; Jack Yackel and Dan Gaskill of Locust Hill; Bud Habes and Bill Cory of Durand, and Mike DeGregory of Genesee promise a rough path for the ultimate winner.

The annual stag dinner will be staged tomorrow night at Brook-Lea. Pairings:

10 a. m.—Bud Habes, Dur.; Dan Gaskill, LH; H. Goebel, BL; N. Vagg, LH.
 10:25—Ray Levis, OH; Bob Levis, AUS; W. Springer, USNR; J. Henderson, CCR.
 11:00—N. Stevenson, LH; D. Mullen, BL; F. Lillich, LS; A. Fien, LH.
 11:10—C. Camise, Navy V-12; G. Darcy, BL; D. Hoesterey, Mon.
 11:40—W. Cory, Dur; A. Hauser, LH; J. Bridson, Dur.
 1 p. m.—N. Lengeman, BL; M. Hall, OH; F. Herring, BL.
 2:05—W. Thaney, BL; R. Krusemark, Ridg; J. Aberman, Dur; C. Essinlinger, LS.
 2:10—E. Thaney, Ridg; C. Pero, Ridg; v. Merie, Ridg; J. Holzschuh, Ridg.
 2:15—T. Blutau, OH; H. Bill, OH; F. Allen, OH; D. Jacobs, Mid.
 2:20—G. Robinson, BL; E. Randall, OH; W. Chapin, OH; E. Olsen, BL.
 2:25—J. Johnston, Dur; W. Gill, Dur; J. Thornton, Dur; T. Gaudette, Dur.
 2:30—C. Goodrich, BL; A. Anderson, BL; C. Christ, LS; T. Irwin, BL.
 2:35—D. Brown, LH; V. LaTour, LH; T. Gleason, LH.
 2:40—R. Callaghan, BL; G. Levis, OH; J. Weldon, OH; G. Callaghan, Ridg.
 3:00—V. Leonard, LH; P. Benham, LH; E. Proctor, LS; K. Coleman, Ridg.
 3:20—J. Yackel, LH; C. Gath, LS; I. Maeske, Dur; L. Sterling, LH.
 3:30—L. Hildreth, LH; M. DeGregory, Gen; R. Miller, Ridg; R. Hall, Dur.

City Golfers List Match at Toronto

A CONTINGENT of 14 Rochester golfers will journey to Toronto today to renew its international rivalry with Canada at the Mississauga Country Club. The Rochester forces, known as the 'Umning Birds, will face a group representing the host club. The affair, staged for 13 straight years, was suspended last year because of the pleasure driving ban.

Rochester's team is composed of Fred Allen, Harry Bill, Earl Yaky, Bill Gray, Frank Spiegel, Lee Hildreth, Ray Levis, Ted Blutau, Mickey McGuire, Harvey Wheeler, Bill Townsend, Sam Whiting, Harry Damon and Roe Reilly.

Glavin Cards 68, Shatters CCR Record

Charles C. Glavin, who plays most of his golf over the Pelham Country Club course, found the Country Club of Rochester layout so much to his liking he shattered the amateur record for the East Avenue layout with a 68.

The old record of 69 had held good for many years, and was shared by W. B. Macomber, Brendan McInerney, Del Jacobs, Irv Maeske and Cliff Goodrich, among others. Although it has a par of 70, the CCR's 18-hole route has a par rating of 72, second only to Brook-Lea in the Rochester District Golf Association's listings under the Chicago handicap system.

Glavin turned in a sizzling 32 on the outgoing nine, slipping to a one-over-par 36 on the way home. He was playing with T. Carl Nixon, Frank Devans and H. F. Thomas.

The long-hitting Glavin had one bogey and four birdies on the way out, two bogies and a bird on the home half. His card:

Par, out .....	4 4 4 3 4 4 5 3 4	—35
Glavin .....	3 5 3 3 3 3 5 3 4	—32
Par, in .....	4 5 3 4 3 5 3 4 4	—35—70
Glavin .....	4 5 3 5 4 4 3 4 4	—36—68

Mrs. Walter Lyons led qualifiers

USO Plans Weekend Events

THE first inside supper of the season will be served at the USO in Franklin Square this coming weekend. During the summer months, picnic suppers have been in vogue.

A picnic supper will be held Saturday night, sponsored by the Bausch Lomb payroll department, which also will be in charge of the variety entertainment, which will be followed by dancing. There will be gifts for servicemen and women. Miss Cassie Vaccaro is chairman.

Members of the Country Club of Rochester will be hosts Sunday to 30 servicemen from the USO. Golf will be followed by lunch at the Country Club.

On Sunday evening, WHEC will play host and serve the indoor supper. A program will be broadcast from the USO from 7:30 to 8 p. m., followed by dancing to the studio's orchestra. There will be special decorations. Gunnar Wiig is acting as chairman.

F. N. KONDOLF, 81 LONG BUSINESS LEADER, DIES

Held Presidency Of Several Big U. S. Firms

Frank N. Kondolf, 81, former Rochester business executive and onetime president of several nationally-known firms, died yesterday (Aug. 30, 1944) in Merion, Pa., after two months' illness.

During his career Mr. Kondolf served successively as president of the Standard Sewer Pipe Company here, a subsidiary of the American Sewer Pipe in Pittsburgh; president of the Stromberg-Carlson Company, International Business Machines Company and Remington Typewriter Company.

He was born in Rochester. His father, Mathias Kondolf, at first engaged in real estate, at one time was president of the Bartholomew Brewing Company and president of the Standard Sewer Pipe Company. The elder Kondolf, who died in 1912, also founded the Genesee Brewing Company and the now-defunct Moerbach Brewing Company.

Started as Banker

Frank Kondolf went into the banking business as a young man. After the death of his father he became president of the Standard Sewer Pipe Company and several years later went to Pittsburgh to head the sewer pipe company there. After a few years he returned to Rochester and was made president of Stromberg-Carlson Company.

About 25 years ago he went to New York City and became associated with Charles F. Flint, a financier who was serving as business representative of the Russian and British governments. Flint was responsible for the reorganization of the International Business Machines Company and Mr. Kondolf became first president of the reorganized concern. Mr. Kondolf's last position, before he retired about 10 years ago, was president of the Remington Typewriter Company, which he helped reorganize. He then went to Merion to live with his daughter, Mrs. David Soliday.

Kept Contacts Here

Although not residing in Rochester, Mr. Kondolf maintained memberships in the Genesee Valley Club, the Rochester Country Club and the Rochester Club.

Mr. Kondolf's first wife, the former Mrs. Alice Huntington Gove of Rochester, died 25 years ago. Mr. Kondolf's second wife, the former Miss Pauline Carter Doyle of New York City, died in New York about six months ago.

Surviving Mr. Kondolf, besides his daughter, are four brothers, John A., Henry E., Mathias R. and George V. Kondolf, all of Rochester; a son, Harold Kondolf, vice-president of the Maxson Company in New York City; and three sisters, Mrs. John W. Ryan of New York, Mrs. Charles B. Bechtold and Mrs. Oscar Spieker, both of Rochester. Funeral services will be held in Philadelphia at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow. He will be buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City.

Dishwasher—The Country Club of Rochester, Permanent position, live in or out. Call Hillside 2600. 724

Capt. F. T. Finucane Marries Miriam Hellyar

Officer of Marine Corps Takes Bride In Noon Church Ceremony

A BEAUTIFUL wedding of wide Rochester social interest took place at high noon yesterday in St. Patrick's Church, Norwich, Conn., when Miss Miriam Elizabeth Hellyar became the bride of Capt. Frederick Thomas Finucane, USMC.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin George Hellyar of Norwich; the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Emmett Finucane of Ambassador Drive.

Masses of large, white chrysanthemums and cybotium ferns banked the altar, and small clusters of white pompons and smilax were used at the ends of the ribbon-marked pews.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph E. Grady of this city received the vows, assisted by the Rev. Michael Martin of the Sacred Heart Church in Norwich. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bride was lovely in a gown of traditional white satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, long, fitted sleeves and a bouffant skirt ending in a full court train. The bodice was styled with dropped shoulders outlined with Calais lace and a yoke of sheer flesh-colored marquisette. Calais lace also formed an inset panel which extended from the neckline the full length of the gown, and appliqued flowers of white velvet trimmed the sleeves and the skirt. Her veil of illusion, which was held in place by a cap of orange blossoms, extended the full length of the train, and she carried a bouquet of purple-throated white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Roger Charbin of Norwich was matron of honor, and the Misses Nancy Watkins of East Greenwich, R. I.; Lawrice Harrington of Boston and Jenny Dunn of New London, Conn., were bridesmaids.

Mrs. Frederick Thomas Finucane

—Ira L. Hill

bridesmaids. Mrs. Charbin wore a draped gown of waterfall blue crepe, with a small hat of fuchsia feathers mingled with waterfall blue, and carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses with touches of blue delphinium. The bridesmaids were gowned in identically-fashioned frocks of fuchsia crepe, with which they wore hats of waterfall blue feathers, mingled with fuchsia, and carried cascade bouquets of blue delphinium with a few American Beauty roses. Mr. Finucane was best man for his son, and the ushers were Roger Charbin of Norwich, Lt. Paul Carter, USMCR, of Rochester; C. Kimball Flint Jr., of Kingsport, Tenn.; Capt. John Kovac, USMCR, of Bridgeport, Conn., and Chandler Keller, American Red Cross Field Service, of Liberty. Mrs. Hellyar wore a draped gown of gray crepe, with an American	Beauty velvet and feather hat and sables, and a corsage of white orchids. The mother of the bridegroom was in gray-blue crepe, with a purple feathered hat and a corsage of purple orchids. A reception for 300 guests in the Hellyar home followed the ceremony, after which Captain Finucane and his bride left to spend their honeymoon at The Cloisters, Sea Island, Ga. Upon their return, the couple will reside temporarily in Portsmouth, N. H., where the bridegroom now is stationed with the Marine Detachment at the United States Naval Prison, after having served for 20 months with the Third Marine Regiment in the South Pacific. The bride attended the Mary C. Wheeler School in Providence, R. I., and the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Noroton, Conn., and is a graduate of the Ballard	School in New York City. Capt. Finucane is a graduate of Deerfield Academy and of Williams College. He is a member of Zeta Psi fraternity, of the Williams College Club of New York, of the Genesee Valley Club and the Country Club of Rochester. Among the out-of-town wedding guests were Mrs. James C. Bristol, Col. and Mrs. Gordon Baird, Mrs. C. K. Flint Sr., Mrs. C. K. Flint Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Johnston and Mrs. Paul E. Carter, all of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Mergenthauer of Rye; Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stephens of East Orange, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Middleton of Charlottesville, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Schuyler Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGinley, Mr. and Mrs. William Kenney and Mr. and Mrs. E. Fleetwood Dunston of New York City.
---	--	--

No Revelry -- No Arrests -- Only Drizzle!

Late closing of the polls and a brand of what someone once labeled "Democratic weather" combined to bring about an almost total lack of election celebration downtown last night.

Had it been an "off-year" election, last night's lack of Main Street demonstrations would have been considered remarkable. But the absence of celebrators on a Presidential election night was something entirely new in the city's political history. Main Street, throughout the evening, looked just as it does on any rainy night, except that in the late hours there was a bit more traffic than usual. That represented automobiles of people who went downtown to find out what was doing, and found out it wasn't.

Police likewise labeled it the quietest election night in the city's history. Extra police details were on hand, but they weren't needed. In the outskirts the youthful element caused some trouble with bonfires, but even that activity was not too heavy and was discouraged by the rainfall.

The downtown quiet reflected the day's balloting. Police and the district attorney's office reported the quietest election in years. Police were not called to a single voting booth through the day and evening. There were not even minor disturbances and it appeared last night that voting had gone off without challenges in any district. The sheriff and town police also reported quiet and orderly voting outside the city.

The city's major demonstration, so far as the public was concerned was a Convention Hall, where the Republican County Committee held its annual election night returns rally, and that was a pretty quiet affair.

Many election night parties were given in private homes, downtown hotels and clubs. Among those who gathered to listen to election returns were members of the Genesee Valley Club, Oak Hill Country Club, Rochester Club and the University Club. Buffet suppers were served.

SCANNING THE SOCIAL HORIZON

MRS. Harry E. Johnston of Ambassador Drive will entertain the Splinters Twig at luncheon in her home Friday.

* * *
Mrs. Leland D. Judd of Highland Avenue and Mrs. Norman R. Olley of Council Rock Avenue will entertain the Thursday Aid at luncheon Thursday in the home of Mrs. Judd.

* * *
Mrs. William E. Hawley of Highland Parkway will entertain her Red Cross group at luncheon in her home today.

* * *
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. White of Westminster Road entertained at dinner Wednesday at the Country Club of Rochester in honor of Col. Kenneth B. Keating and Mrs. Keating of Elmwood Avenue.

* * *
Lt. William B. Macomber Jr., USMCR, is spending a ten-day leave with his mother, Mrs. William B. Macomber of Buckingham Street.

* * *
Mrs. Charles Benham of San Gabriel Drive entertained her bridge club at luncheon in her home Friday.

* * *
Mrs. Charles Hayden of Elmwood Avenue has left for Princeton, N. J., where she will spend the winter.

* * *
The Third Twig will meet for luncheon Friday at the Century Club.

Mrs. Robert Jeffers of Seneca Parkway will be hostess to the Travelers Club, Thursday afternoon in her home.

* * *
Lt. Charles T. Tuke, USAMC, will arrive from Boston Friday to spend a day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Tuke of Calumet Street, en route to Carlisle, Pa., where he will complete his medical training.

QUALITY-ECONOMY

Essent

WAR W

MEN AND

NEEDED IMM

FOR

DAY AND EVE

We have a large variety

Ensign Gardner R. Anstice, 24, Killed in Airstrip Plane Crash

An airplane landing crash at the Naval Air Station, Peru, Ind., Friday took the life of Ensign Gardner R. Anstice, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer R. Anstice Sr., 8 East Blvd.

Ensign Anstice, who was an instructor at the field, died Friday night as the result of injuries suffered when his plane crashed during a landing on an airstrip southeast of the field, the Associated Press reported yesterday.

He was married to the former Patricia Beaven, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Beaven, 248 Westminster Rd. His wife and year-old twin daughters, Carol and Katherine, lived with him outside his base at Peru.

ENSIGN G. R.
ANSTICE

Formerly a member of the Civil Air Patrol and an instructor for the Rochester Aeronautical Corporation, Ensign Anstice entered service in August, 1943. He had previously worked at the Anstice Foundry after being graduated from Kent School in 1940.

A member of the Genesee Valley Club, he also belonged to the Rochester Yacht Club and the Country Club of Rochester.

Besides his wife, daughters and parents, he is survived by a brother, Mortimer R. Anstice Jr., and a sister, Mrs. Louis S. King of Dayton, Ohio.

The body is being brought to Rochester for burial at a time to be announced later.

GROUP TO FETE BRITISH CONSUL

Francis Edward Evans, CMG, British Consul General in New York, and Mrs. Evans, will visit the British War Relief Society headquarters at 351 East Ave. Wednesday and later will speak at a dinner in the Country Club of Rochester for members and friends.

FRANCIS E.
EVANS

The British visitor, who is said to have been impressed with an account of the local war relief activities given by Sir Angus Fletcher, British Consul at Buffalo, will be accompanied also by Sir Angus and Lady Fletcher. His evening talk will be entitled "Britain Takes Sock of the Future." Tea has been arranged for the afternoon visit at the relief headquarters.

Evans, who has been senior consul at New York since September, 1943, is former assistant head of the North American Department of the British Consular Service. Since he entered the service in 1920 he has served in New York, Boston, Colon, Panama, and Los Angeles. He was made a companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George in the King's New Years Honors List, 1944.

real
eve
wou
com
Bro
lica to recc

Gay Holiday Series of Dances, Dinners, Teas Gets Underway at Clubs

Climax Slated In New Years Parties

FOR young and old alike, a gay social whirl reminiscent of pre-war days is in store during the holiday week.

Two dances last evening got the week off to a gala advance start. At Genesee Valley Club, the young set dined and danced at a party given by the Misses Sally Reineman, Susanne Rowe, Patricia Williams and Frances Folsom. Out at Brook-Lea Country Club, members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and their wives—the Jaycees and the Jaynees—celebrated the coming of the Christmas season with a dinner dance.

Although today will be comparatively quiet, it will feature family affairs at two of the country clubs—an old-fashioned Christmas buffet at Oak Hill and a Yule dinner at Monroe—and the annual Christmas tea at Brook-Lea Country Club, which will be held from 3 to 6 p. m. for members and their friends.

All the clubs will be closed this evening and all day tomorrow.

Festivities will get under way again Tuesday with three social events: A luncheon given at the Genesee Valley Club by Mrs. Joseph Hoby in honor of Miss Sarah Mary Morrison, and junior dances in the evening at two of the clubs—the Chatterbox Club and Monroe Golf Club.

Wednesday will be featured by a Christmas bridge luncheon at Oak Hill Country Club, and a roller skating party given that evening at Genesee Valley Club by Miss Nancy Kearns and Miss Sally Healy.

On Thursday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Stuber of Ambassador Drive will give a tea dance in their home for their son, James, and Dr. and Mrs. Alan Valentine of Eastman House will entertain at a dance in their home in the evening for their daughter, Miss Lauris Valentine. Thursday evening also is the date of the Century Club's outstanding social function of the year—its Christmas dinner dance.

More dances for the young set are scheduled for Friday, when Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Lunt will entertain at their home in Arnold Park for their daughter, Miss Edith Lunt, and the Junior Assembly will hold its annual Christmas dance at the Country Club of Rochester.

But the big night of the season for one and all, of course, will be Saturday, when the traditional New Year's Eve celebrations will be held at all the clubs. Genesee Valley Club has scheduled a dinner dance; Monroe Golf Club will have a dance; Oak Hill will hold an informal grill party; Brook-Lea has slated a "cocktails to breakfast" party; the Country Club of Rochester and Locust Hill both have planned dinner dances.

The Rochester Yacht Club, alone of all the clubs, will have its New Year's Eve celebration on next Sunday night, in the form of a buffet supper and informal dance.

The first day of 1945 will see the fulfillment of a Rochester social tradition of long standing, when Mrs. Henry G. Danforth and Miss Jeannette Huntington of West Avenue are hostesses at their annual New Year's Day reception. Monroe Golf Club also will hold its traditional Governors' Tea on New Year's Day.

Today's Social Calendar

1 p. m. — Alumnae Chapter of Delta Gamma, luncheon for undergraduate members, Rochester Club.

1:30 p. m. — Community Service Department of AAUW, benefit dessert bridge, AAUW clubrooms, East Avenue at Prince Street.

4 p. m.—Nazareth College Alumnae Association, tea and musicale dedicating plaque to alumnae in service, lounge of John Fisher Hall at the college.

8 p. m. — Genesee Valley Club, dinner dance.

8 p. m.—University Club, dinner dance.

8 p. m.—Country Club of Rochester, dinner dance.

9 p. m.—Monroe Golf Club, supper dance.

10 p. m.—Oak Hill Country Club, informal grill party.

10 p. m. — Locust Hill Country Club, supper dance.

10 p. m.—Rochester Club, dance.

10 p. m. — Brook-Lea Country Club, cocktails to breakfast party,

Clubs Welcome 1945 Early

TOWN and country clubs took the calendar into their own hands last night, and most of them officially welcomed the new year 24 hours ahead of its actual arrival with dinner dances, suppers or completely informal gatherings.

In the city, the Genesee Valley Club staged a dinner dance, while at the Rochester Club there was informal dancing from 10 until 2. Lights glowed from the windows of the University Club, too, where more than 200 members and their friends gathered for a gala dinner dance reminiscent of old times. Dinner service began at 8, and dancing continued until 3 a. m., with the music of the orchestra finding keen competition among the traditional noise-makers of the guests.

At the Country Club of Rochester, hundreds of guests gathered early in the evening for dinner, which was followed by dancing into the morning hours. Although Oak